Friends and Brothers:

Maryland Masonic Research Society (MMRS) sponsored presentation this coming Saturday at 11:30 via Zoom. It is schedule for 90 minutes but unless there is considerable discussion it should be less than an hour.

To prevent hackers from gaining entrance you must send in a reservation to sharonleevogel@gmail.com who is organizing the session. She will provide you with the link and password for the session.

The meeting is NOT an official MMRS. The program to be presented is: "Masonry's Hidden Secret: School for Meditation & Spiritual Advancement."

The discussion will include information once considered closed to non-Masons. But may now be found in many publications and on the internet. Thus there is nothing in the presentation which is not available to the public (though a few old timers like myself still have shivers when seeing it openly). It should be informative.

Fraternally,

Walter Benesch, President
MMRS
